“ My precious cousin, Anthony. I'm still in deep shock over your passing. I'll always remember the fun times at your parent's home on Market St. Your Dad was priceless, he made us laugh many times when we were together. The last time we saw each other was in 1971 at my wedding. I'm happy we did chat on the phone awhile back and reminisced in years passed. I will cherish those memories forever. God Bless you in Heaven my dear cousin along with your parent's and brother. You are very sadly missed by all of us. Love & always in my Heart, Cousin Gloria XOXO Cheshire, CT
