

Jan "John" Markovsky

May 9, 1946 - April 16, 2021

Jan "John" Markovsky, 74, of Cresco, died Friday, April 16, 2021 at Lehigh Valley Hospital Pocono in East Stroudsburg. He was the loving husband of Furn (Clark) Markovsky, with whom he shared 10 years of marriage.

Born in Sumperk, Czechoslovakia, he was a son of the late Jan and Marie (Clupna) Markovsky.

John was a formula race car driver prior to coming to the United States in January of 1971. Here, he began working as a chef at the former Mount Airy Lodge, Pocono Manor, and later the Inn at Buck Hill, where he created beautiful butter sculptures. In the late 70's, he started John Markovsky and Son construction company providing residential services. John continued to work as a cross-country truck driver before retiring in 2013. His passion for fishing fulfilled his retirement.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his son, Jon Markovsky and his wife, Ashley, of Canadensis; daughters: Jill Stitt and her husband, Josh, of Cresco; Jeanine Planer and her husband, Kyle, of Cresco; step-daughters: Mary Clark of Surprise, Arizona; Carol Meinweiser of Canadensis; brother, Jiri Markovsky of Czechoslovakia; sisters: Jana Pospisil; Jitka Vyroubalova; Kveta Divis; and Marie Macek, all of Czechoslovakia; grandchildren: Austen Massaro, Jon and Decker Markovsky; Jesse and Juli Lewis; Kody Planer; Samantha Kemly, Vaida and Remy Stitt; Ariel, Kendra, and Kayden Clark; numerous great-grandchildren; and dear nephew, Rosta Pospisil.

There will be no services at this time; private cremation has been entrusted to the Bolock Funeral Home Crematory.
