“ My sincerest condolences. I only came to know Jeanne upon the inception of Most Holy Trinity Parish. What a beautiful lady whose deep, abiding Faith was such an inspiration to others. I am truly blessed to have had Jean cross my life path, even if only later in our lives.
Rest in peace, Jeanne.

“ Jeanne was a truly remarkable woman- a treasured friend, a woman of strong faith always seeking continual growth and deeper understanding, and a person of compassion. It was a blessing to have her as a companion in the journey of faith. May she rest in the peace in her heavenly home.
