“ Although Lee and I have lost touch through the years, she is forever imprinted on me. We were very good friends in my final years of high school. She befriended me when I arrived at Pocono Mt. High School and made me feel welcome. She had a spirit about her, that I was fortunate to be around and appreciate. We had some wonderful times together, from creating dances to snowmobiling. On one of our adventures, probably the one I repeated most through the years involved a snowmobile; you see I had to beg my parents to go with her because they thought it be too dangerous. Lee picked me up at my house, then we traveled on the freshly snow covered streets back to her home. I thought what a treat! Oh but that wasn't the end, the adventure just got started! Once we arrived at her home, Lee's mother greeted us with hot chocolate. Once we were done, and after we watched the deer play in her back yard, she smiled and said lets go with that wonderful twinkle in her eyes she always had. We zipped through trees which seemed impossible to me, that she did with ease. Then all of a sudden a clearing came, and before I knew it we were heading down the side of the mountain with me screaming and heart racing. What an amazingly fun adventure that did end with me falling off the machine, yes right in front of my house! What a laugh we had! I have had the blessing of some amazing friends in my life time, and I'm happy she was one. I wanted to leave a heart felt thank you to Morna; for always making me feel welcome in you home. I leave you with my love and condolences and knowledge she lives on through those she left her love with. Love, Sherry
