

Rebecca Jo Bocker-Roepke

October 5, 2016

Rebecca Jo Bocker, Roepke, 59 of Newfoundland Pennsylvania, passed away on October 5th at her home. Calling hours will be held at Bolock Funeral Home, 6148 Paradise Valley Road, Cresco on Monday, October 10th from 3 to 5pm. A private service will be held by the family. Becky was born in Toledo, Ohio to Charles and Harriet Roepke on May 1, 1957. She went to high school at Lely High School and graduated in 1975. As a reigning Naples Shrine Queen, Becky went on to attend Ringling School of Art as well as Boston Institute' of Art. She went on to earn her Bachelor's degree in Fine Arts from Tyler School of Art, Temple University. She was an accomplished artist and worked in museums in New York and South Carolina. She taught special needs individuals at Devereaux until her last position with the Pocono Mountian School District as an art teacher.' known as Mrs. B, Becky dearly loved the big ones and little ones she had the privilege to teach. Becky is survived by her partner Greg Komeko, sons Andrew, Greg, and Stephen Bocker, sisters Kelly Sentilles and Lori Corner, brother Mike Roepke, mother Harriet. She is preceded in death by her father Charles and sister Cathy. She has a large extended family to include aunts and uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews. Donations can be made to Pocono Mountain Arts Council, P.O. Box D, Tobyhanna, PA 18466. The family wishes to extend their gratitude to Bolock Family Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ My heart is very sad. I have such beautiful memories of my cousin Becky. She was a very beautiful, talented and kind woman. My thoughts and prayers are with her sons, her friend Greg, Aunt Harriet, Lori, Kelly, Michael, all her nieces/nephews and those that hold her dear. As you walk through the grief and wonderful memories of this treasured woman, may you find peace.

"Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us everyday, unseen, unheard, but always near, still loved, still missed and very dear."

Love, Amy

---

October 10, 2016 at 12:00 AM