

Richard C. Storm

July 19, 2017

Richard C. Storm, 66, of Pocono Summit, died on Wednesday, July 19, 2017, at Geisinger Community Medical Center in Scranton. He was the loving husband of Sharon (Strzepa) Storm, with whom he shared 25 years of marriage. Born in Scranton, he was a son of the late Robert and Margaret (Wardell) Storm. A graduate of North Pocono High School and of Penn State University, Richard received a degree in civil engineering, specializing in surveying. He owned and operated a successful surveying business alongside his wife. As a young adult, he was a pivotal and active member of the community of Daleville. He was a softball coach for the team "Mercuri Magic" to his young daughters, many nieces and friends. He was a member of the Minisink Lions Club and played on a bowling league for many years. An avid musician and vocalist, he played guitar with various local musicians. He was a hard worker throughout his entire life and enjoyed spending Sundays visiting Mount Airy Casino. He was best known for his quick wit, outgoing personality and his sense of humor, particularly in the way he would tell a story. In addition to his wife, Sharon, he is survived by his daughters: Kimberly Storm, Ian Ritter and grandson Kaden of Covington Township; Nicole Christian and her husband, Blaine, of Covington Township; a brother, Robert Storm and his wife, Alma, of Covington Township; sisters: Shirley DeSandis and her husband, Bill, of Covington Township; and Joan Wolf and her husband, Jerry, of Elmhurst Township; and nieces and nephews: Susan Storm, Lori Cawley, Carol Tucker, Bill DeSandis, Peggy Burke, Tammy Strausser, Vicki Reese, Jerry Wolf and their families. There will be a visitation from 2 to 4 p.m. Saturday, July 22, at Bolock Funeral Home, 6148 Paradise Valley Road, Cresco. Services will follow at 4 p.m. at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in honor of Richard, may be made to the COPD Foundation by visiting copdfoundation.donordrive.com. Private cremation has been entrusted to Bolock Funeral Home Crematory.

“ Sharon and family,

I am so sorry for your loss.

My heart is sad :(

BUT

To be absent from the body is to be in the presence of the Lord!
